

Illuminating Engineering Society of Australia and New Zealand presents

The Basics of Lighting Design

16th & 17th Sept. 2019 Holiday Inn Auckland Airport
2 Ascot Road, Airport Oaks

Course Aims

This course is designed to expand on knowledge of light and the basics of its designed application.. After satisfactory completion of this course, the attendee should feel confident discussing good lighting design at a basic level with industry participants plus an ability to work in a Lighting design role under expert supervision.

Topics Covered

Lighting Design and Lux Levels
Creating a Lighting Design Brief
Creating a Concept Lighting Design
Creating the Final Lighting Design

Cost per person is $1475 AU

Payment must be received prior to commencement. No refund will be offered for last minute cancellation. Deferment or transfer to another person is possible. Please note that attendees must have completed the IESANZ Introduction to Light Course or similar to enrol in this course. A Certificate of Completion will be issued, attendees must attend both days.

Bookings can be done online visit the IESANZ website at www.iesanz.org look under EDUCATION or contact the Course coordinator Susan Wall on 0417 057177 or email : susan.wall@iesanz.org for assistance.